THE CLARENDON A SMOULDERING MASS OF ASHES.

Fire Fiend Licks Up Big Hostelry, Entail- ing Loss of Over $200,000—Total Insurance is $81,000.

GUESTS ESCAPE; MANY LOSE CLOTHES, MONEY, JEWELS.

The big Clarendon Hotel, so well and widely known as the largest and one of the best equipped hosteries outside of the Flamingo system of hotels, on the East Coast, was totally destroyed yesterday morning by a fire that started a little after 5:30 o'clock.

The fire was discovered by the first and second bakers, who were just going about their business. It originated in the coal bins under the big kitchen, and as first it seemed that the fire extinguishers would do the work, but at the critical moment there developed difficulty in getting the water faucets to work, and although every effort was made, it became evident almost immediately that the situation could not be controlled, and the alarm was given through the building, and so well done that no lives were lost, and no accidents of serious consequence reported, and the guests saved considerable of their property.

Extra Police Do Service.

Twelve extra police were called out, and just as soon as it became evident that the fire would be confined to The Clarendon, a fire line was formed to protect the property still piled on the sidewalk as far west on Ocean boulevard as The Seabreeze Sanitarium, and the curious crowd was held back. The roof of The Clarendon, home of Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Kochersperger, caught from the eiders, and was imminent danger of burning but for the heroic efforts of Mr. Gibson, guest of the Seaside Inn, Harry Hartshorn of Daytona, and Mr. Knowlton, who climbed on the roof and rendered timely assistance.

Dr. Potter Early on Scene.

When the employees who were present saw the fire creeping snake-like up the walls they turned on the electric bell on the tower and this woke Dr. Potter who was sleeping in his cottage. He rushed to the scene and with the steward used the fire extinguisher and at one time thought the fire was under control. It made a fresh start, however, and realizing that the hotel was doomed he directed the chief engineer to get such assistance as he could get and the guests out, starting at the upper stories.

Fire Bell Rang.

As soon as the fire was discovered, the alarm was turned in on the fire bell at Daytona, and it was this bell that awakened the inhabitants of the three towns generally to a knowledge of the fire.

Beginning a Brilliant Season.

The Clarendon was just beginning a season that promised to be most prosperous. It is understood that every room was engaged and 217 guests were in the hotel. The hotel property alone had an estimated value of $205,000. This does not include the loss of the season. It carried insurance in a number of companies but not sufficient to cover the loss.

Origin of Fire a Mystery.

No one seems to have any definite idea of the origin of the fire. The flames were discovered by the head baker and his assistant about 5:30 in the charcoal bin. The night watchman made his usual rounds at 5:30 o'clock and there was no evidence of fire. The only theory that can be advanced as to the origin is spontaneous combustion.

It Could Have Been Worse.

As in the case of another recent fire at Seabreeze, the morning was very still, and it is owing to this fortuitous circumstance that The Clarendon cottages and other nearby properties were saved. The cottage on Ocean boulevard, occupied by The Clarendon attaches as hair dressing and manicure parlors, was saved by heroic effort, as its scorched and warped side walls testify. Had this been it hard to say where the destruction of property would have ended. The Clarendon Casino was saved on the south; and the destruction of the Berry property some months ago, made a gap in the row of buildings on the beach, and doubtless saved the ravages of the fire on the north.

Many Acts of Heroism.

There were many acts of heroic daring and exhibitions of unselfishness displayed on the part of many while the fire was in progress. Men like C. A. Ballough, the Burman boys and others who always rush into the thick of the fight regardless of personal safety. In this instance were ladies of "high degree" who lent a willing hand where needed. Mayor E. W. Greene, of this side, organized a squad and helped to blanket and save buildings which otherwise would have been reduced to ashes. Justice H. T. Titus, who is always a conspicuous fire fighter, was on hand and rendered telling assistance.

Old Lady Bruised.

One of the injuries reported as the result of the fire was to Mrs. Roberts, an elderly lady who was in a room in the north wing of the structure, over the dining room. Mrs. Roberts was compelled to jump from the window, and in so doing suffered a bruised eye. She was helped to The Princess Isabella, the nearest hotel to the fire, but she did not register, her place of residence, therefore, being unknown. Her injury is not serious.

Lurid and Awe-Inspiring.

Looking down Ocean boulevard, it was a lurid and awe-inspiring sight to see the great block of buildings being fiercely devoured by the greedy flames. The dense smoke made a big blotch against the clear sunshine of a fair morning. The boulevard was crowded with automobiles and vehicles of every description, and the people were congregated by the hundreds, a large number, refugees from the hotel, some of whom had escaped with only their wearing apparel. Delivery wagons were plying in and out, removing the promiscuous piles of goods from the street. Such was the street scene. Crossing to Glenview boulevard and to the ocean beach, just north of where the Clarendon stood, an imposing building, were trunks and goods taken from the beach cottages in many cases the owners standing guard over them. The

A Community Loss.

The destruction of The Clarendon is a community loss and will be felt by Daytona, her merchants and other business as well as Seabreeze. It throws out of employment a large number who are dependent upon their daily wages, and far away from their northern homes. It is a severe blow to one of our most progressive, prominent citizens, Dr. E. L. Potter, and is regretted from every view point.

Doctors in Demand.

The local physicians were in demand. A number of the elderly guests suffered from heart affections and required the attention of doctors. One negro sustained a broken shoulder caused by a trunk falling on him.

Help Became Panic Stricken.

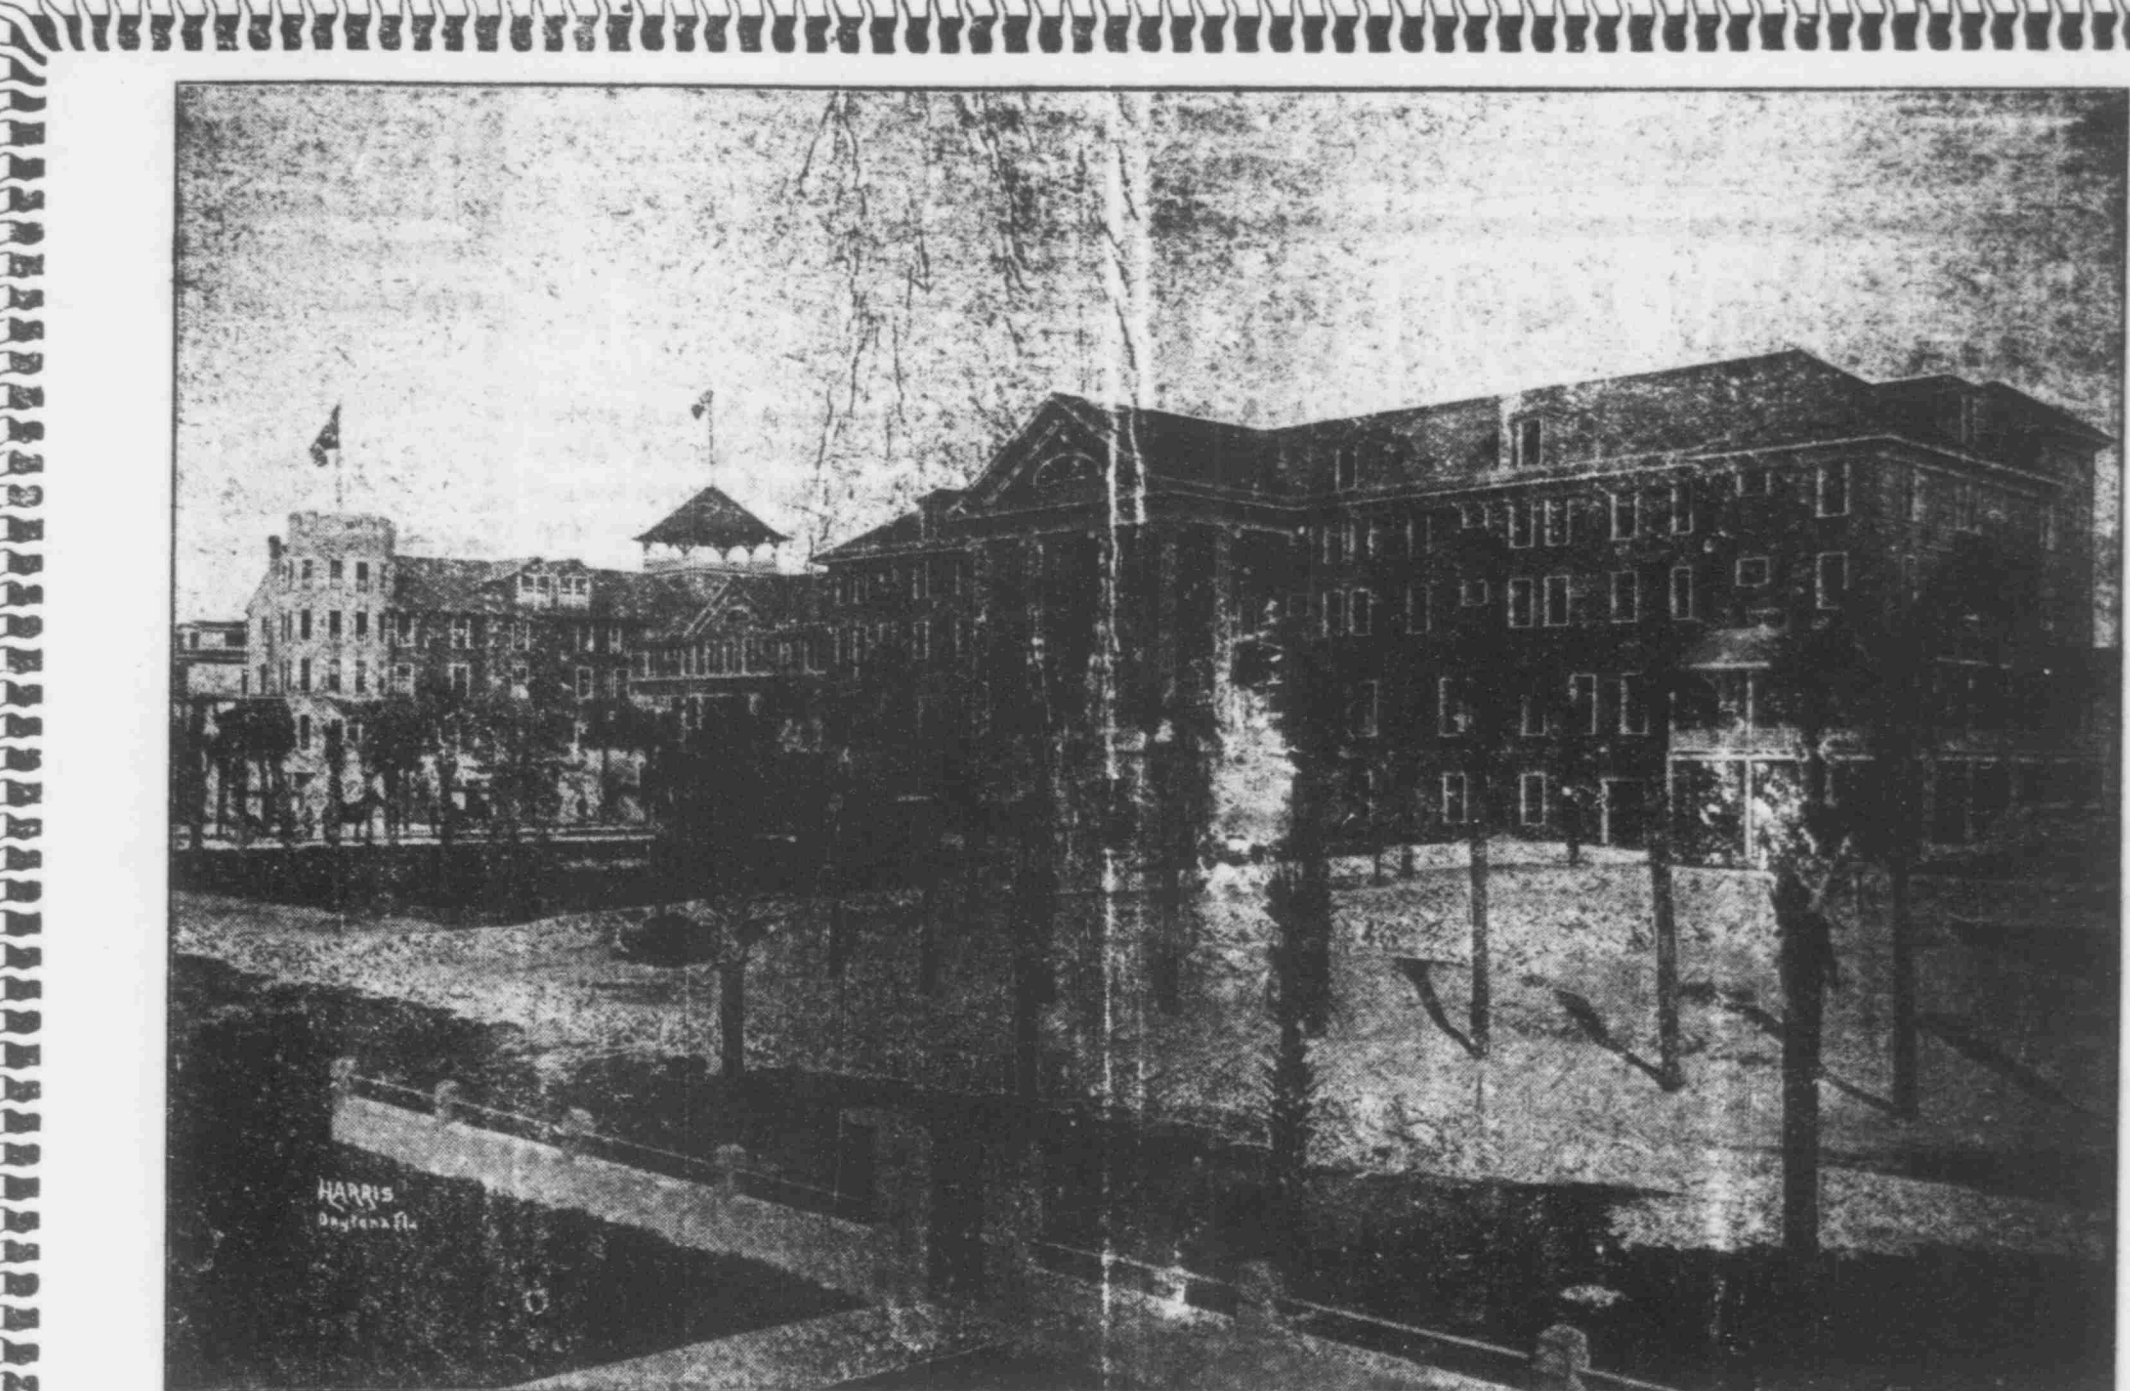

The help were quartered in The Breakers, adjoining the Clarendon on the north. When the flames burst out of the north end they became panic-stricken and many lost their heads. But for this much more would have been saved. In the excitement and distress of the hour many things transpired which would have been ludicrous had it not been for the tragic surroundings. One lady observed that she had saved three hat pins of all her worldly possessions; another tied up all her valuable jewelry, carried it down stairs and, laying it upon a table, rushed back to save her clothing. When she returned the package was gone.

Help Lost Everything.

Most of the trouble encountered in getting people out of the burning building was with the dining room girls. Most of these girls had everything they owned in the world with them at the hotel, and knowing that they would be practically destitute many of them took long chances trying to get their belongings out of the burning building. Refusing to leave their property, even when the fire was almost upon them several of the girls had to be carried out almost bodily, and many jumped from the windows of the Breakers, where their sleeping quarters were located.

Hotel Ormond to the Rescue.

"First aid to the injured" came from magnanimous Hotel Ormond, who opened their hearts and their purses. The hotel and her guests sent down two big automobiles, post haste, bringing loads of clothing, including dresses, shoes, etc., and $800 in cash, the generous contribution of that great hostelry and her guests, and it came in good time.

THE ONCE MAGNIFICENT CLARENDON, NOW BUT SMOULDERING ASHES.

Losses Are Far-reaching.

Many in the Daytona district sustain a loss in such a fire; the results are far-reaching, much more so than appear upon the mere surface. The Shattuck electric plant will lose about $600 in equipment, not to mention service for the remainder of the season. Losses in lost pictures and others sustained losses. J. D. Gates, the Chicago hat man, lost everything, even to his pocket book, and had to borrow from his friends. While there was perhaps 50 per cent of the baggage saved there was much loss of a valuable character, including race and costly jewels and keepsakes of valued friends.

Goodwin's Father Among Guests.

Nat C. Goodwin, of Boston, father of the famous actor, who recently married Edna Goodrich, was a guest at the Clarendon, and was among the guests who had a rather narrow escape. He was overcome by smoke, and had to be carried from the building. As soon as possible Mr. Goodwin came across the river, and is now a guest at The Dolphin. Many people at first thought that Nat Goodwin, himself, that is the actor, had taken part in the shoot and pillow race carnival, but the famous portrait of the drama is in the East, far away from here.

Smoke Arched the Hallway.

The light wind of yesterday morning carried the thick black smoke down the west wing, causing a steady arch of smoke to hang over the Halifax river. People going to the fire from the Daytona side of the river notice this phenomenon and remarked about it.

The Usual Vandalism.

The usual vandalism occurred. Many people, ordinarily law-abiding citizens, seem to leave all common decency behind them when a fire alarm is sounded. As at the McLeary fire yesterday was noted the same vandalism. A riot was made on the Upper Court in the Casino and a number were captured by

Thought She Must Pay.

Many ludicrous as well as pathetic incidents occurred. One lady with a young baby in her arms rushed up to a Seabreeze business man and asked him to take care of the infant. This he did and when she returned for the youngster reached into her stocking, took out her pin and offered him a quarter. The business man very suavely declined the offer, much to the astonishment of the lady who said, she "thought she had to pay for everything in Florida."

Insurance In Conrad Agency.

Dr. Potter carried insurance in the Conrad Agency with a number of companies to the amount of $64,000. The Conrad agency, a total insurance of $81,000. The outlying dwellings and buildings were damaged, however, partly well covered by insurances. The total loss of property is estimated at $250,000. When you add to this the individual losses of the guests, and other losses, this sum is considerably increased.

So, So We Busy.

A review of the stories in Daytona opened up a busy morning to enable guests of the Clarendon to clothe themselves. Many ladies ordinarily appearing on the streets in Parisian gowns and bedecked with diamonds, yesterday morning were seen in the various stores, clad only in night gowns with a check over it. Some ladies took time to put on one stocking, some were barefoot.

Brick Holds Up.

The Broad Sands brick had a serious test of its heat-resisting qualities. A smoke stack left standing after the destruction of the building was consumed at its base.

Hero's Acts Noticeable.

The following incident was related by Chief Engineer to a News representative. When the fire had overwhelmed the power plant, and thereby cut off the water supply, the roaring flames flung themselves over the cottages below the northeast tower, and devoured them in few minutes. A strong wind blew the lowering flames across Grandview avenue, and it became a question of but a few minutes when the building at the west end corner of Ocean boulevard would be in flames. Already the paint and brickwork of the building was being scorched, and the windows shattered.

Where Volusia Meets Beach.

The destruction of the E. L. Potter residence, Dr. E. L. Potter's home and a pretty cottage west of the rear of the fire would attack a house occupied by Clarendon employees, the large Clarendon garage and further on the extensive stables recently built, and purchased last week by Henry Haigh. E. W. Greene, of Daytona, saw the danger, too, and we called for help.

The Guests New Scattered.

There was no water in sight to check the flames and it would be a miracle if the building was saved. A ladder was found and Lew Smith, manager of the plant, called a Gladiolus of Seaside, Bert Shoemaker of Daytona Beach, Mr. Allen of Daytona, climbed up on the roof and faced the terrible heat and blistering flames, buckets being flung to them they dipped sealding water out of the sheet-iron tank on the roof and pouring it over the roof and sides of the building, saved it from destruction.

Will Clarendon Be Rebuilt?

Dr. E. L. Potter, proprietor of the Clarendon, was a guest of the hotel when he decided to build the new hotel. He had a number of plans, but he decided to build a new hotel. He had a number of plans, but he decided to build a new hotel. He had a number of plans, but he decided to build a new hotel.

Baby Rescued From Flames.

At 11:30 p.m. as people began to retire for a night's rest in the Breakers, the fire broke out in the dining room. The fire spread to the kitchen and the dining room, and the fire spread to the kitchen and the dining room, and the fire spread to the kitchen and the dining room.

Incipient Runaway.

A horse belonging to C. Roy Miller, of Holly Hill, became frightened by an automobile on First avenue, Saturday evening about six o'clock, and pulling loose from his bridle started on a run for Beach street. He was soon freed from the harness, which came in contact with a post. He turned north on Beach street and was stopped just around the corner in front of the Prince George. No damage resulted beyond the twisting of the shafts and some breakage to the harness.

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 15.—The Epworth League held a Valentine Social at the parsonage Friday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated in hearts and pot plants. A large and enthusiastic crowd was out, and success marked this as all other entertainments of the league. The following program was rendered: Song, by the audience, "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds"; prayer by Rev. Barze; duet by Misses Anna; reading by Miss Grace Smith, subject, Lincoln; mandolin selection, Mrs. Chas. Wilson and Miss Ruth Coates; dialect recitation by Mr. Hawley; duet by Mr. and Mrs. Barze; two recitations by Miss Lila Reid and a solo by Mr. Pierson. Misses Yelvington and Fitzgerald were accompanists. The refreshments were delicious tea cakes, made by Mrs. Barze, and fruit punch.
At the morning service at the M. E. church Rev. Barze took for his subject "Heroes of Promise," and Mrs. J. C. Ellis, of Seabreeze, sang a solo. The same trend of thought was continued by Rev. Barze at the evening service in the theme "Our Anchor Heaven." He held fine congregations, as usual.
Mrs. F. A. Cunningham, of Indianapolis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris, who are located at the Hibbard cottage arrived yesterday on a visit to her parents. Mrs. Cunningham is prominent in church missionary work, being president of the Christian Women's Board of Missions.

Protective Coloring of Insects.
A well known little moth with pale green mottled wings is the only case in which I have myself watched the protection afforded by color at work. It was on a summer's evening when I saw this little moth zigzagging up and down with the most extraordinarily irregular flight and a bird pursuing it. Twice the bird swooped and just missed his prey owing to a sudden turn and drop on the part of the moth. And then to my great delight the moth dropped against the stem of a tree on which was growing a greenish gray lichen. The bird swooped again close to the tree, but failed to see the insect and quitted the chase. It took me an appreciable time to detect the little moth resting against the lichen and closely matching it in color.—Sir E. Ray Lankester in London Telegraph

Seabreeze News
SEABREEZE, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of Covington, Ky., who have been at one of the hotels for some time, have leased Mr. Erregger's cottage, usually known as the Jim Ballough cottage, on the river front.
The teachers of the Seabreeze-Daytona Beach school enjoyed a visit from the following members of the Daytona school Thursday and Friday of last week: Prof. Wright, Mrs. Mabbette, and the Misses Fuller, Griffin, Athorp, Wilkinson, Morrell and Haacker. It is the sense of the County School Board that an exchange of visits between the different schools will be beneficial in new ideas and better methods of school work.
Messrs. Gamble and Hatch have bought the vacant lot nearly opposite the latter's home on Halifax avenue, from Mrs. Caruthers, Mr. Post's sister. In a recent trip to Jacksonville Mr. Hatch purchased a pure bred Holstein for a family cow, and the lot is being used as a pasture.
Miss Callie Mims of Bonaventure, arrived Friday, and will visit her sister Mrs. Homer Wakefield, for some time.
The High School students met at the schoolroom, Saturday, to rehearse their drama, "An Up-to-date American."
Misses Annie May Wilson and Violet Middleton gave Miss Gladys Wannicutt a surprise party, Saturday evening, on the occasion of her birthday.

The Modern
Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-paked sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls sit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk stiggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their great arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and set like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings, and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.
The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their urduens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and hiding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

THEY SET US RIGHT.

Maj. J. D. C. Morris and Capt. Neville
H. Clark, of Daytona, were in the city yesterday on business. During a welcome call at the office of the Record they emphatically denied that "Daytona sleeps" on the contrary, they assert that the pretty town on the Halifax is filled with visitors, and that the season there is one of the best in the history of the place—St. Augustine Record.

Will Add Storage Facilities.
As will be seen by the change of advertisement in this issue, F. A. Root, proprietor of the fine dry dock situated

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS

Silver Beach Property

Furnished house of 11 rooms; modern improvements and vacant property, on Halifax Avenue, near the Automobile Club house. For sale at a bargain on easy terms.

T. K. FITZGERALD.

Years ago I sold my place in ORMOND.

 I am still here, and there is room for several other cottages, nicely situated. My neighbors have for sale some very pleasant Cottage Lots at prices that have not discounted the millium.

TWO COTTAGES both situated at the corner of Orange and Palmetto avenues—one of the most desirable corners in Halifax; one cottage 7 rooms, the other 3; bath and all other conveniences. Price, $1000 for both and a snap at that. If you are interested and desire to look at the property, call on or address C. M. Bingham, City; or Bingham & Thompson, Agents.
